

Multiple-Choice Questions

- Which of the following best describes the impact European colonization had on the Western Hemisphere's native population?
    - The native population was highly respected in terms of territorial possessions and religious beliefs.
    - The Europeans for the most part did not interact with the native population.
    - Spain was the only European country to successfully create an alliance with the native population.
    - Spain worked in conjunction with the Aztecs and Incas to harvest South America's resources.
    - Native populations were often killed off or driven away by the Europeans.
  - Which of the following imperial powers originally settled the Hudson River Valley?
    - Holland
    - England
    - France
    - Sweden
    - Portugal
  - The colony of Georgia was
    - comparatively the most democratic English colony
    - established by Spain in order to protect its colony of Florida
    - established by England as a penal colony
    - organized by English Catholics who had been persecuted by the Anglican Church
    - eventually ceded to Spain in return for Florida
  - Which English colony was established by proprietors that also had investments in the slave trade and therefore introduced slavery to their colony?
    - New York
    - Pennsylvania
    - Virginia
    - The Carolinas
    - Maryland
  - The Duke of Baltimore established the colony of Maryland
    - as an opportunity to invest in that colony's maritime industry
    - in order to prevent France from seizing that territory
    - as a haven for persecuted English Catholics
    - for Quakers who had been evicted from Pennsylvania
    - after failing to colonize the Carolinas
  - French immigrants to the New World tended to inhabit
    - Canada
    - Florida
    - territory east of the Appalachian Mountains
    - southern colonies
    - the Middle Atlantic colonies
  - As the founder of Rhode Island, Roger Williams
    - established religious freedom for Jews and Catholics
    - supported freedom of religion for the Huguenots
    - established complete religious freedom for all of the colony's settlers
    - established mandatory church attendance
    - abolished religious practices throughout the colony
- colony of New York:
- Most settlers refused to recognize the Anglican Church.
  - Native Americans laid claim to all of New York.

8. Which of the following stunted the physical growth of the English colony of New York?
(A) Most settlers refused to recognize the Anglican Church.
(B) Native Americans laid claim to all of New York.
(C) New York relied almost exclusively on imports from Britain.
(D) Few colonists wanted to settle in the western part of the colony.
(E) Aristocrats controlled vast tracts of land.
10. John Winthrop is associated with which colony?
(A) New Amsterdam
(B) Massachusetts Bay Colony
(C) Jamestown
(D) Quebec
(E) Pennsylvania

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. A major goal of the French in wanting to maintain control over the Ohio Valley was to
(A) prevent attacks by Native Americans on their forts and outposts
(B) eventually expand into Canada
(C) merge its landholdings from Canada to the Mississippi Valley
(D) exploit the lumber trade
(E) prevent Spain from taking control of the Mississippi River
3. As a result of the British victory in the French and Indian War
(A) relations between French and Americans colonists improved dramatically
(B) France was able to hold on to Canada but lost the rest of its North American empire
(C) the Americans and British developed a mutual respect for each other's military abilities
(D) Britain returned the lower Mississippi Valley to Spain
(E) none of the above
5. Under Britain's mercantilist policy
(A) Britain and the other imperialist powers worked out a trade agreement that would prevent conflict
(B) the colonies were expected to export more finished goods than they imported
(C) trade restrictions on the colonies were forbidden
(D) the colonies were expected to supply Great Britain with raw materials
(E) the colonies enjoyed considerable political and economic growth
6. Prior to the 1760s, Britain's Navigation Acts
(A) were effective in raising enormous revenue for the Crown
(B) prevented the American colonies from shipping raw materials to Great Britain
(C) were only loosely enforced in the American colonies
(D) successfully ended smuggling in the American colonies
(E) none of the above